About the artist: Sharron's story

“Before I came to Transform my life was a bit messy. I got with a new partner who hurt a member of my family and I went into shock. My kids went to live with their father and I fell out with my family. It sent me into a downward spiral and I turned to drink and drugs to block it all out. I got into more and more trouble, I lost my flat and ended up on the streets.

I stayed at a night hostel waiting for a referral to Transform. When I finally moved there I just saw it as a place to stay and carried on drinking. Eventually I realised I wasn't getting any better and I needed help. My keyworker got to the bottom of it all and encouraged me to go to therapy. I never thought it would help but it was the one thing that turned me round.

I recently entered the Transform Christmas card competition and won! I feel really proud – it's nice to give something back. Transform were the first people to accept me for who I am, even though I kept fighting, they kept helping.

I've now moved into my own flat, it's really exciting! The next big thing will be to start seeing my kids again on a regular basis, then I'll know I'm sorted.

When I came to Transform all I wanted was a bed, but now I want so much more. I will always remember this place.”
